About

With a 29-meter frontage, this plot has good clearings that allow for the construction of a house, while maintaining the surrounding pine trees that give it privacy and country charm. The layout of the space provides ideal conditions for building a country house in a quiet and secluded environment.

It is located about 7 km from Coruche, 12 km from the motorway entrance in Salvaterra de Magos, and approximately 70 km from Lisbon, ensuring accessibility without sacrificing the serenity of the rural environment.

An opportunity for those looking to build in a well-located area, with tax benefits on purchase and a strong connection to nature.
